

Emergency Housing & Rental Assistance

Offered through the Pinal County Housing Authority (PCHA) for Financial Relief

Are you or someone you know:

- A resident of Pinal County?
- Experiencing or at risk of experiencing homelessness?
- Fleeing or trying to flee domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking?
- Having utilities shut off or receiving notices that payments are past due?
- Receiving notices of eviction or that rent is past due?
- At risk of foreclosing on a home?
- Having financial difficulties related to COVID-19?

If one or more of these questions apply to you or someone you know, it may mean qualification for thousands of dollars in financial relief.

For more information, contact Mary Hyatt to inquire about financial relief offered through the PCHA. She can be reached directly at mary.hyatt@pinal.gov or at (520) 866-7206.
